

Progyny, Inc. Enhances Suite of Services with Acquisition of BenefitBump

January 28, 2025

Provides expecting parents with a concierge-level service model that delivers expert guidance, navigation and support for parental leave planning

NEW YORK, Jan. 28, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Progyny, Inc. (Nasdaq: PGNY), a transformative fertility, family building, and women's health benefits solution, today announced the acquisition of BenefitBump, a comprehensive parental leave benefits navigation program for new and growing families. This addition enhances Progyny's fertility and family building offering, extending the company's ability to further serve the needs of families on their journey from pregnancy to early childhood and beyond.

With 90% of parents seeking greater support to manage responsibilities at work and home, Progyny's enhanced suite of solutions aims to reduce member stress, improve recruitment, return-to-work and retention rates, and foster proactive child and family health. By addressing gaps across the spectrum, from fertility to postpartum support and parental leave navigation, the company helps eliminate fragmentation and enhances multi-dimensional outcomes for families.

"The acquisition of BenefitBump extends our ability to provide compassionate and dedicated support to give members more confidence along their parenting journey," said Pete Anevski, Chief Executive Officer, Progyny. "BenefitBump's high-touch, guided support integrates seamlessly into our existing patient care model and aligns with our commitment to improving member well-being through a higher standard of care."

Alongside the offerings Progyny is known for across preconception, fertility, pregnancy, postpartum, and menopause, the enhanced suite of services will include:

- Clinical social worker-led parental wellness program
- Comprehensive parental leave and benefits navigation
- Care and resource navigation for child behavior concerns and neurodiverse care
- Clinician-facilitated peer support groups

"Navigating employee benefits and leave programs is complex and adds unnecessary stress for families. Every new parent will experience leave, yet it has been an underserved area. BenefitBump was built by listening to the challenges and needs of parents, with the goal of easing their anxiety and ensuring employers and employees get the most value from family support investments," said Scott Liebman, Founder, BenefitBump. "We're thrilled to join Progyny, an innovator and leader in the family building space, and together provide the holistic support that families deserve."
